

Průběh obhajoby diplomové práce:

After the author presented her diploma work comparing the representation of the Puritans in the fiction of Nathaniel Hawthorne and one drama by Arthur Miller, she was asked questions concerning the differences in the psychology of these representations by the opponent as well as issues regarding symbolic analysis employed by Hawthorne. She responded by indicating that Miller employed greater use of hysteria while Hawthorne employed symbolic usage of guilt, sin and redemption. The final assessment of this diploma work (which was ~~comp~~ composed in English) was finally assessed as excellent.

Body:

Klasifikace: vyborně

Celková klasifikace:

Datum obhajoby: 1.2.2011.....
podpis předsedy

Hodnocení ústních zkoušek: