Questions and comments

Critical comments and overall contributions, total value of the thesis

This thesis has been examined under a specific framework of a minor thesis. Given the weight of the thesis and the expected standard the thesis achieves a PASS grade.

It appears that the candidate is heavily influenced by the political ideologies of the past, and the present. An opportunity for a great thesis has been missed, which could have focused more on the originally identified objectives.

Questions and topics for discussion before the commission

One question that should be asked from the candidate is how to improve the thesis.
