Short characteristics of the thesis

The thesis focuses on characters in the works of Charles Dickens, namely in The Pickwick Papers, David Copperfield, Oliver Twist and Great Expectations. It starts with an outline of the broad historical and cultural context in which Dickens's stories are situated and then proceeds to analyse different types of characters that can be found in the selected works of Charles Dickens. In the conclusion, the author summarises her findings and discusses the appeal of Charles Dickens for contemporary readers.

Overall assessment

The thesis is well laid out and written, despite some minor glitches, in good English. The thesis is well structured, novels for discussion well chosen (and it needs to be said that the scope of material exceeds expectations for a bachelor thesis). The author writes passionately and demonstrates her interest in her subject matter.

I do recommend the thesis for defence and suggest that it be graded as excellent.

Práci doporučuji k obhajobě.

Navrhovaná klasifikace: výborně
