Questions and comments

Critical comments and overall contributions, total value of the thesis

Student decided for an interesting topic and relatively new form of cooperation and economic activity so called "Sharing economy". As a new economic phenomenon its comparison as regards economic support and social conditions in two different countries brought a new information that could be used for future research.

Questions and topics for discussion before the commission

- 1) What was the largest surprise for you as regards the comparison of these two countries?
- 2) Do you believe that sharing economy could be a way for future economic development?
- 3) Which type of economy in your opinion could be complementary to sharing economy?
