

Průběh obhajoby diplomové práce:

Ms. Lucie Novotná wrote on the slave narratives of the 19th century in the United States. Her focus was the narrative strategies aimed didactically at persuading white Northerners that slavery was immoral and should be opposed. The questions emphasized the techniques employed in the narratives though. Ms. Novotná referred back to plot issues such as suicide. The presentation showed new issues to the apparent and covered most of the narratives except the longest one by Charles Bell which Ms. Novotná admitted was not properly analyzed.
